

The Gender Equity Working Group Child Care Committee in collaboration with the Provost's Daycare Implementation Committee Present:*

Exploring Child Care Options at WSU

Expert panelists will review programs currently or soon to be available on or near Wayne State's Detroit campus. Speakers will also discuss innovative campus and community-based approaches to support working parents and student parents with childcare needs. Faculty, staff, administrators and students are invited to attend.

Tuesday, January 15, 2019
3:30 to 5:00 pm
Student Center, Hilberry A/B

Panelists

Jennie McAlpine, Senior Director of Work-Life Programs, University of Michigan

Anna Miller, Lecturer WSU College of Education, Executive Director of the College of Education Early Childhood Center and the Merrill Palmer Skillman Institute Early Childhood Center, and Director of Woodward Corridor Early Childhood Consortium

Lisa Keiper, Education Director, Rainbow Child Care Center

Krista McClure, Owner, Detroit Parent Collective (invited)

*The Gender Equity Working Group is a composed of leadership from WSU's Commission on the Status of Women (COSW), WSU's Women in Medicine & Science (WIMS), and the AAUP-AFT, Local 6075